

ATALM Workshop

Developing Tools to Navigate Intellectual Property and Protect Cultural Heritage

Agenda

10 September, 9am-5pm

Jane Anderson (NYU), James E. Francis (Penobscot Nation) and Lisa Hillman (Karuk Tribe)

- 9-9.30 Introductions
Jane Anderson
- 9.30-10.20 Copyright and Native Collections: The Biggest Issues
Jane Anderson
- Governance and IP Negotiations within Tribal Contexts
- 10.30-11.50 Penobscot Nation Experience with IP: Developing an IP Working Group and a Rights and Resource Board
James E. Francis
- 11.00-11.40 Workshop 1 (Jane Anderson and James E. Francis)
In this workshop we will conduct an exercise that will get at some of these questions:
- What is IP and what is Tribal IP?
 - How to get everyone on the same page?
 - Developing IP Working Groups, Committees, Rights/Resource Boards, IRBs?
- 11.45-12.00 Penobscot Nation Experience with IP: Negotiating with Institutions
James E. Francis
- 12.00-12.30 Workshop 2 (Jane Anderson and James E. Francis)
In this workshop we will conduct conversation that will get at some of these questions:
- How to start a negotiation? What needs to be in place?
 - Memorandums of Understanding as useful preliminary tools?
- 12.30-1.00 LUNCH BREAK
- Developing Protocols, Agreements and Transfer of Copyright
- 1.00-1.20 Kaurk Tribe Experience with IP: Developing Practicing Pikyav: A Guiding Document for Collaborative Projects and Research Initiatives with the Karuk Tribe
Lisa Hillman
- 1.20-2.00 Workshop 3 (Jane Anderson and Lisa Hillman)
In this workshop we will conduct an exercise that will get at some of these questions:
- Identifying problems and who your audience for a protocol is
 - Developing and drafting protocols and guidelines
- 2.00-2.20 Kaurk Tribe Experience with IP: Sipunuk Digital Library Deeds of Gift and Copyright Transfer Documents
Lisa Hillman
- 2.20-3.00 Workshop 4 (Jane Anderson and Lisa Hillman)
- Developing and designing documents for a digital library
 - Drafting Deed of Gift and Transfer of Ownership Documents
- 3.00-3.15 COFFEE BREAK
- 3.15-3.45 Local Contexts and Traditional Knowledge Labels
Jane Anderson
- 3.45-4.30 Workshop 5 (Jane Anderson)
- Demo of Local Contexts and current TK Label Adapter for customizing Labels
- 4.30-5.00 Close of workshop, evaluations and future work