

CVTC Oral History Donor Form

The mission of the Chickaloon Village Traditional Council Cultural Resources is to document and share the history and cultural knowledge of Chickaloon Native Village Tribal citizens and Ahtna Dene Elders. A major part of this effort is the collection of oral history interviews with knowledgeable individuals.

Tsin'aen (Thank you) for participating in our project. Please read and sign this donor form to release your interview for future use. Before doing this, read it carefully and feel free to ask questions you may have about its terms and conditions.

Agreement

I, _____, narrator, donate and convey my oral history interview dated _____ to the Chickaloon Village Traditional Council (CVTC) Permanent Collections. In making this gift I understand that I am conveying all rights, title, and interest in copyright to the CVTC. I also grant CVTC the right to use my name and likeness in promotional materials for outreach and educational materials. In return, CVTC grants me a nonexclusive license to use my interview through my lifetime.

I further understand that I will have the opportunity to review and approve my interview before it is placed in the repository and made available to the public. Once I have approved it, the CVTC Language & Culture staff will make my interview available for research without restriction. Future use may include quotation in printed materials or audio/visual excerpts in any media, and availability on the internet.
