The mission of the Chickaloon Village Traditional Council Cultural Resources is to document the history and cultural knowledge of Chickaloon Native Village Tribal citizens and Ahtna Dene Elders. A major part of this effort is the collection of oral history interviews with knowledgeable individuals.

Tsin'aen (Thank you) for participating in our project. Please read and sign this donor form to release your interview for future use. Before doing this, read it carefully and feel free to ask questions you may have about its terms and conditions.

Agreement

I, _____, voluntarily agree to be interviewed for this oral history program.

I understand that my interview may be distributed to the public for educational purposes, including formats such as print, public programming, and the internet.

Additionally, I agree to freely share my interview (as described in the access and limitations outlined in the CVTC Oral History Donor Form) under the terms of a Creative Commons Attribution – Non-Commercial (CC-BY-NC) License. This means that I retain the copyright but that the public may freely copy, modify, and share these items for noncommercial purposes under the same terms, if they include the original source information. In return, the interviewer promises to send one free copy of the interview recording, transcript and related items to the contact information listed below.
